

December 15, 2011
Tokyo Big Sight, Inc.

"Global Environment Information Display"
Announcement of new photographs

Have you heard of the "Global Environment Information Display", on display in Tokyo Big Sight's North Concourse since 2007? Tokyo Big Sight is cooperating in the display of photographs and information under themes related to the global environment, held by the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP), as part of our effort to contribution to society.

From December 15th to 17th, the exhibition "Eco-Products 2011" will be held. Please take this opportunity to visit the Global Environmental Information Display.

【Global Environment Information Display】

Change: November 25, 2011(*Display contents are updated every three months.)

Contents: Entitled "endangered", etc.

Number of displays: 20

Organizer : UNEP

Collaborators: Asahi Shimbun, National Institute for Environmental Studies,
Tokyo Big Sight Inc.

Supported by: Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan, Ministry of the Environment,
Tokyo Metropolitan Government

【Outline of UNEP】

An organization established in June, 1972 as the United Nations Environment Programme (Headquarters: Nairobi, Kenya). It promotes activities of the United Nations and international cooperation activities in the environmental field.

Official website: <http://www.unep.org/>

We look forward to your visit.