Minor Alteration Made in Korean Website Implemented in end of May

The website of Tokyo Big Sight (Tokyo International Convention Center) is in 4 languages^{※1} (Japanese, English Chinese, and Korean). It has been 5 month since the Chinese and the Korean website launched in February, 2009.

In the end of May, 2009, we have reviewed the way of expression in Korean. It was done with the cooperation of exchange staff dispatched from KINTEX (Korean International Exhibition Center)^{※2} for 1 month, from May 11th to June 12th.

※1 Except for a part of the content

※2 KINTEX is an exhibition center located in Gyeonggi-do, Korea (www.kintex.com)

The screenshot shows the Korean version of the Tokyo Big Sight website. At the top, there is a navigation menu with links for HOME, 고객 안내 (Customer Guide), 시설 안내 (Facility Guide), and 행사정보 (Event Information). Below the menu is a main banner featuring a large golden structure, likely the Tokyo International Convention Center, with the text "감격스러운 만남이 여기에 있습니다." (A wonderful meeting is here). Underneath the banner are several icons representing different services: 교통편 안내 (Transportation Guide), 안내 안내 (Guide), 레스토랑 (Restaurant), 숙박 예약 (Accommodation Reservation), and 행사 일정 (Event Schedule). The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column contains a table of upcoming events, and the right column contains a list of related exhibitions.
